Mormugao Port Trust

Notification

No. MPT/IGA(92)/78

Amendment to the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 read with section 124(1) and (2) of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963 (38 of 1963), the Board of Trustees of the Mormugao Port Trust, hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966, namely:—

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the date on which they have been effective in the case of Central Government servants.

2. Substitute the following for the existing regulation 4 and 5 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Pension and Gratuity) Regulations, 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the said Regulations) namely:—

"Regulation of claims to pension or family pension.

4(1) Any claim to pension or family pension shall be regulated by the provisions of these rules in force at the time when an employee retires or is discharged or is allowed to resign from service or dies, as the case may be.

(2) The day on which an employee retires, or is discharged or is allowed to resign from service, as the case may be, shall be treated as his last working day. The date of death shall also be treated as a working day.

Provided that in the case of an employee who is retired prematurely or who retires voluntarily under regulations 5 to 8 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Superannuation and Age of Retirement) Regulations, 1974 or regulation 41 of the said regulations as the case may be, the date of retirement shall be treated as a non-working day."

"Reduction in the amount of pension for unsatisfactory service.

5(1) If the service rendered by an employee prior to the date of his retirement has not been satisfactory, the appointing authority may by order make reduction in the amount of pension or gratuity, or both, as that authority may think proper.

Provided that the appointing authority shall before passing an order under this sub-regulation serve or cause to be served a notice upon the person concerned specifying the reduction proposed to be made in such amount on account of his unsatisfactory service under Board and call upon such person to submit within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice or such further time as may be allowed by that authority, such representation as the person concerned may wish to make against the proposed order and take into consideration the representation, if any, submitted by such person before passing such order.

Provided further that the amount of pension shall not be reduced below the limit specified in sub-regulation (3) of regulation 46.

(2)(a) The appointing authority may delegate power to a subordinate authority for deciding if the service rendered by an employee has been satisfactory and, therefore, no reduction in the amount of pension, or gratuity, or both is called for.

(b) The power under clause (a) shall be delegated in respect of a category or categories of employees who may be subordinate to such subordinate authority.

(c) The delegation of power under clause (a) shall not carry with it the authority to order reduction in the amount of pension or gratuity, or both, which shall continue to vest in the appointing authority.

(3) For the purpose of sub-regulation (1) and sub-regulation (2), the expression 'appointing authority' shall mean the authority which is competent to make appointments to the service or post from which the employee retires.

(4)(a) The reduction referred to in sub-regulation (1) shall be of a permanent character.

(b) The measure of reduction in the amount of pension shall be to the extent by which the employee's service as a whole has failed to reach a satisfactory standard and no attempts shall be made to equate the amount of reduction with the amount of loss caused to the Board.

(5) The pension authorised under these regulations shall not be reduced although proof of the service having been not satisfactory may come to the notice of the appointing authority subsequent to the authorisation of pension.

(6) Nothing in this regulation shall apply —

(a) Where a part of pension has been withheld or ordered to be recovered under regulation 7; or

(b) Where a part of pension has been reduced under regulation 45; or

(c) Where death-cum-retirement gratuity is admissible under clause (b) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 47 and family pension is admissible under regulation 52 and 53; or

(d) to effect any recovery which has the result of punishment".

3. Introduce the following 'Form-FA' after 'Form-F' in the said regulations, namely:—

"FORM-FA

Form of Order intimating reduction or no reduction in the amount of Pension

1. Name of the employee:

2. Father's name (and also husband's name in case of female employee):

3. Present or last appointment including name of establishment —

4. Substitute the following regulation 54, 55 and 56 for the existing regulations 54, 55 & 56 (and the notes thereunder) of the said regulations, namely:—

"54. "Family", in relation to an employee means—

(i) Wife in the case of a male employee, or husband in the case of a female employee, provided the marriage took place before the retirement of the employee.

(ia) a judicially separated wife or husband, such separation not being granted on the ground of adultery, provided the marriage took place before the retirement of the employee and the person surviving was not held guilty of committing adultery.

(ii) Son who has not attained the age of twentyone years and unmarried daughters who has not attained the age of twenty-four years, including such son and daughter adopted legally before retirement but shall not include son or daughter born after retirement."

"55(1). The period for which family pension if payable shall be as follows:—

i) in the case of a widow or widower, upto the date of death or remarriage, whichever is earlier;

ii) in the case of a son, until he attains the age of twenty-one years, and

iii) in the case of an unmarried daughter, until she attains the age of twenty-four years or until she gets married whichever is earlier.

Provided that if the son or daughter of an employee is suffering from any disorder or disability of mind or is physically crippled or disabled so as to render him or her unable to earn a living even after attaining the age of 21 years in the case of the son and 24 years in the case of the daughter, the family pension shall be payable to such son or daughter for life subject to the following conditions, namely:—

i) if such son or daughter is one among two or more children of the employee, the family pension shall be initially payable to the minor children in the order set out in sub-regulation (3) of regulation 56 until the last minor child attains the age of 21 or 24 years as the case may be, and thereafter the family pension shall be resumed in favour of the son or daughter suffering from disorder or disability of mind or who is physically crippled or disabled and shall be payable to him/her for life;

ii) if there are more than one such son or daughter suffering from disorder or disability of mind or who are physically crippled or disabled, the family pension shall be paid in the following order namely:—

(a) firstly to the son, and if there are more than one son, the younger of them will get the family pension only after the life-time of the elder;

(b) secondly, to the daughter and if there are more than one daughter, the younger of them will get the family pension only after the lifetime of the elder.

iii) the family pension shall be paid to such son or daughter through the guardian as if he or she were a minor;

iv) before allowing for life any such son or daughter the sanctioning authority shall satisfy that the handicap is of such a nature as to prevent him or her from earning his or her livelihood and the same shall be evidenced by a certificate obtained from a medical officer not below the rank of a Civil Surgeon setting out, as far as possible, the exact mental or physical condition of the child;

v) the person receiving the family pension as guardian of such son or daughter shall produce every three years a certificate from a medical officer not below the rank of Civil Surgeon to the effect that he or she continues to suffer from disorder or disability of mind or continues to be physically crippled or disabled.

Explanation:— (a) Only that disability which manifests itself before the retirement or death of the employee while in service shall be taken into account for the purpose of grant of family pension under this regulation.

(b) A daughter shall become ineligible for family pension under this regulation from the date she gets married.

(c) The family pension payable to such a son or daughter shall be stopped if he or she starts earning his/her livelihood.

(d) In such cases it shall be the duty of the guardian to furnish a certificate to the Treasury or Bank or Accounts Officer, as the case may be every month that (i) he or she has started earning his/her livelihood; (ii) in case of daughter, that she has not yet married.

(2)(a)(i) Where the family pension is payable to more widows than one, the family pension shall be paid to the widows in equal shares.

(ii) On the death of a widow, her share of the family pension shall become payable to her eligible child.

Provided that if the widow is not survived by any child, her share of the family pension shall cease to be payable.

(b) Where the deceased servant or pensioner is survived by a widow but has left behind eligible child or children from another wife who is not alive, the eligible child or children shall be entitled to the share of family pension which the mother would have received if she had been alive at the time of the death of the employee or pensioner."

"56(1)(i) Except as provided in sub-regulation (2) of regulation 55, the family pension shall not be payable to more than one member of the family at the same time.

(ii) If a deceased employee or pensioner leaves behind a widow or widower the family pension shall become payable to the widow or widower, failing which to the eligible child.

(iii) If sons and unmarried daughters are alive, unmarried daughter, shall not be eligible for family pension unless the sons attain the age of twenty one years and thereby become ineligible for the grant of family pension.

(2) Where a deceased employee or pensioner leaves behind more children than one, the eldest eligible child shall be entitled to the family pension for the period mentioned in clause (ii) or clause (iii) of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 55 as the case may be, and after the expiry of that period the next child shall become eligible for the grant of family pension.

(3) In case both wife and husband are employees of the Board and are governed by the provisions of this rule and one of them dies while in service or after retirement, the family pension in respect of the deceased shall become payable to the surviving husband or wife and in the event of the death of the husband or wife, the surviving child or children shall be granted the two family pensions in respect of the deceased parents, subject to the limits specified below, namely:—

(a)(i) if the surviving child or children is or are eligible to draw two family pension at the rate mentioned in sub-regulation (5) of regulation 53, the amount of both the pensions shall be limited to five hundred rupees per mensem;

(ii) if one of the family pensions ceases to be payable at the rate mentioned in sub-regulation (5) of regulation 53 and in lieu thereof the pension at the rate mentioned in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 53 becomes payable, the amount of both the pensions shall be limited to five hundred rupees per mensem;

(b) if both the family pension are payable at the rates mentioned in sub-regulation (1) of regulation 53, the amount of two pensions shall be limited to two hundred and fifty rupees per mensem.

(4) Where a female employee or male employee dies leaving behind a judicially separated husband or widow and no child or children, the family pension in respect of the deceased shall be payable to the person surviving.

Provided that where in a case the judicial separation is granted on the ground of adultery and the death of the employee takes place during the period of such judicial separation, the family pension shall not be payable to the person surviving, if such person surviving was held guilty of committing adultery.

(5)(a) Where a female employee or male employee dies leaving behind a judicially separated husband or widow with a child or children, the family pension payable in respect of the deceased shall be payable to the surviving person provided he or she is the guardian of such child or children.

(b) Where the surviving person has ceased to be the guardian of such child or children, such family pension shall be payable to the person who is the actual guardian of such children."

5. Introduce the following note below regulation 52 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"Note:— "a minimum period of one year of service" means service rendered in a temporary or permanent capacity in a pensionable establishment and does not include —

- i) period of suspension, if any, and
- ii) period of service, if any, rendered before attaining the age of eighteen years."

6. Introduce the following regulation 28A after the existing regulation 28 in the said Regulations, namely:—

"Verification of qualifying service after 25 years service, or 5 years before retirement.

28A (1) On an employee completing 25 years of service or on his being left with five years before date of retirement, whichever is earlier, the Head of Department in consultation with the Accounts Officer shall in accordance with the rules for the time being in force, verify the service rendered by such employees, determine the qualifying service and communicate to him "in Form O" the period of qualifying service so determined.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1) where an employee is transferred to another department from a temporary department or on account of the closure of the department he had been previously serving or because the post he held had been declared surplus or where an employee is transferred in the interest of the administration from one department to another department, the verification of his service may be done whenever such event occurs.

(3) The verification done under sub-regulation (1) and (2) shall be treated as final and shall not be re-opened except when necessitated by a subsequent change in the regulations and orders governing the conditions under which service qualifies for pension.

Note: See "Form O" for verification of service".

7. Introduce the following "FORM 'O'" after the existing "FORM 'N'" at the end of the said Regulations, namely:—
